

Sarah E. Kalika
Consulting Geologist

Professional Geologist (California)

Certified Asbestos Consultant (California)

Lead in Construction Inspector / Assessor and Supervisor (California Department of Public Health Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention, California)

Bachelor of Science in Geological Sciences, University of California at Santa Barbara
19 years as a Consulting Geologist for property transactions, development, and environmental remediation projects in Northern and Southern California

Applicable Projects & Expertise:

- Mapping & sampling of naturally-occurring asbestos (NOA) for construction projects: schools, commercial office buildings, multi-family residential housing in California
- Asbestos building materials and leaded paint / coating sampling, abatement specification preparation, and renovation / demolition oversight activities for schools, residential, and commercial redevelopment projects
- Preparation of Asbestos Dust Mitigation Plans for commercial and residential construction projects
- Asbestos air monitoring: sample collection, record-keeping, tabulation, and reporting for construction projects
- Health and Safety plan writing and implementation for internal employees
- NOA Awareness classes for clients and internal employees
- Regulatory and project planning Interaction (on behalf of property owners / developers) with local Air Quality Management District regulators, Department of Toxic Substances Control Schools Unit, city & county planning agencies

Professional Associations:

- Northern California Regional Director on the Board of Directors, Association of Environmental & Engineering Geologists (AEG)
- Co-Chair, AEG Naturally Occurring Asbestos Technical Working Group
- Secretary, International Association of Engineering Geology and the Environment (IAEG) Commission 39: Naturally Occurring Asbestos
- Member, AEG Finance Committee, Communications Committee
- Past Chair, AEG Governance Committee
- Co-Chair, AEG Meetings Advisory Committee
- Co-Chair, AEG 61st Annual Meeting / IAEG 13th Congress in San Francisco 2018
- Co-Organizer of AEG Naturally Occurring Asbestos Symposium: 2012, 2014, 2016, 2018, 2020

Public Speaking & Presentation:

Presenter of dozens of oral & poster presentations at AEG Annual Meetings, AEG-hosted Naturally Occurring Asbestos Symposiums, Kleinfelder corporation's Technical Seminars, city planning agency brown-bag seminar series, annual client training sessions, internal employee health & safety training sessions